

Terms and Conditions

- The below instructions form part of the official terms and conditions. Once you have clicked 'nominate now' this is deemed acceptance of the following terms and conditions;
- You cannot nominate yourself for this award;
- You can only nominate someone who has volunteered within the last two years at an Australian school, club or sub/zone union;
- You can nominate more than one person for this award, however you can only nominate one person at a time and it must be submitted via the 'nominate now' link on Rugby Australia's website;
- The nominee (volunteer) must give their Rugby Club written consent to be nominated and agree to these terms and conditions;
- The nominee must also give their Rugby Club written consent to share their story and personal photos to be published on Rugby Australia's website and for possible media and marketing purposes;
- The nominee must also give their Rugby Club written consent to take part in media interviews;
- Late, incomplete or incorrect entries will not be accepted;
- Rugby Australia is responsible for accepting nominations and their decision will be final with no negotiations;
- The judging process involves each State Union submitting up to three recommendations to Rugby Australia, from which Rugby Australia selects the final five finalists. The Rugby Australia Selection Committee (comprising of selected members from Rugby Australia, FOX Sports and HSBC) will then select the winner and four runners up of the award;
- The chosen winner will receive a $10,000 grant (excl GST) to go towards developing and improving the Rugby Club they are volunteer of;
- The funds will be deposited directly to the Rugby Club to ensure the funds are spent solely on rugby-related items.
