

SAFETY POLICY

BACKGROUND

Our vision is to inspire all Australians to enjoy our great global game. One of the four key pillars of our strategy is to make Rugby a game for all. To achieve this, Rugby must be as safe, inclusive and fair as possible. Rugby, like many other activities, involves an element of risk. This policy is aimed at ensuring that Rugby is as safe as it practically can be to make the game fun and fulfilling for all.

POLICY

The primary consideration in all participation decisions must be the safety of all participants as a requirement that overrides all others.

WHAT IS 'SAFETY'?

Safety in its broadest sense is protection from any harm, danger or risk. The interplay between this policy and the Rugby Australia Participation Policy is intended to primarily deal with potential physical harm, danger or risk that may be associated with participating in Rugby.

This focus on physical harm, danger or risk is not intended at all to devalue or de-prioritise the significance of the social, cognitive, emotional and environmental safety and welfare aspects of participating in Rugby. It is incumbent on all participants to ensure that rugby is as safe, fair and inclusive as possible.

The Rugby Australia Member Protection Policy, inclusion policies published from time to time, various associated guidelines and educational resources found in the Rugby Learning Centre such as 'Play By the Rules', Child Protection and Harassment and Discrimination, provide requirements and guidance in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES

This policy applies to all participants associated with Rugby in all positions whether paid, unpaid / voluntary.

EXCEPTIONS

None

SANCTION(S)

It is an obligation under the Rugby Australia Code of Conduct for all participants to comply with this Safety Policy and its related policies and guidelines. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action pursuant to the Rugby Australia Code of Conduct.
